RECEIVED

In June 1986, we requested to meet with CIA representatives on our survey of security assistance to Greece, Spain, Turkey, and Portugal. Our request was denied. Our work has now been focused on the composition and impact of security assistance to Greece, specifically to address:

- Criteria and justification for the types and levels of aid when balanced against existing internal /external threats and military requirements.
- Need for and use of foreign military sales credits in light of the status of the Greek economy.
- Security of U.S./NATO data and technology.
- Costs, benefits and alternatives associated with U.S. base facilities.
- Military capability of Greece to meet its NATO role.

We would appreciate the opportunity to discuss these issues with CIA analysts prior to our in-country work which is scheduled to start in October 1986.
